

Michigan is the third largest producer of apples in the US. Naturally fat-free, apples are also rich in fiber and antioxidants. Apples make up more than half of the total fruit grown in Michigan.

cultivatemichigan.org